The History Of New Years

The celebration of the new year is the oldest of all holidays. It was first observed in ancient Babylon about 4000 years ago. In the years around 2000 BC, the Babylonian New Year began with the first New Moon (actually the first visible crescent) after the Vernal Equinox (first day of spring).

The beginning of spring is a logical time to start a new year. After all, it is the season of re-birth, of planting new crops, and of blossoming. January 1, on the other hand, has no astronomical nor agricultural significance. It is purely arbitrary.

The Babylonian new year celebration lasted for eleven days. Each day had its own particular mode of celebration, but it is safe to say that modern New Year's Eve festivities pale in comparison.

Happy New Year!!

Can you believe that it is 2012 already. Where does the time go!! I hope that everyone had a blessed holiday season.

This month all the classroom will be learning about the winter season, Martin Luther King and celebrating New Years.

Please make sure that your child has a coat, hat, and gloves each day because they will be going outside weather permitted. Also please make sure that your child has extra winter clothes in their cubbies.

Thank You,
Mrs. Jenny

Infants

We would like to wish Lille , Tony, and Liam, a Happy Birthday and we hope that you had a wonderful Christmas and an Happy New Year. This month the older children will be learning about winter and making some cool winter crafts. We will be working with the infants on sitting up, standing and walking. All the children will be learning about emotions, colors, and learning new words to expand their vocabulary. We look forward to what this year holds for us in the infant room. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,
Mrs. Brittany & Ms. Misha

Toddlers

This month the children will be learning the difference between hot and cold using their senses. They will be learning about all of their four senses and learning what to wear when its cold and hot outside. The children will be doing some art projects that go along with winter and also doing some food activities. Parents are invited at any time to come and join the class when we do these special projects.. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Ms. Megan

2-5's

Happy New Years!

We have so much things planned for this month. The children will be learning about hibernation and what animals do during the winter months. We will also be teaching the children about winter and what types of clothing to wear so they do not get sick. We will also be celebrated New Years and Martin Luther Kings Jr. birthday. Thank you for all your support, and please let us know if you need anything.

Ms. Tyson & Ms. Abby

School Age

This month the children will learn about winter animals and how they live. We will also learn about Martin Luther King Jr.

The children will be making some COOL treats and fun crafts. We will have a pajama day on the 23rd and the children can wear there pajamas! We will be enjoying a special movie and popcorn too!

Thanks,
Mrs. Allysha
